

The following regulations have to be signed before a pupil will be admitted to the school. The signing of these regulations is your agreement to abide by them as long as your child / children remain pupils at Waterberg Academy. One copy should be signed and returned to the Head, while the other should be kept for reference purposes.

HEAD'S REGULATIONS

1. Permission for absence at the beginning and the end of terms will not normally be given to facilitate holiday arrangements. Where difficulties arise, special exceptions may be made but you are asked to abide by the Head's decision.
2. No pupil may be absent from school without prior permission being obtained in writing except in the case of illness. When a pupil has been ill, a letter of explanation should follow.
3. No pupil may miss any extra mural activity unless he/she has excused him/her has excused him/her beforehand by providing a letter from his/her parents, or if the Head has granted permission. Normally, permission will only be granted if a pupil is ill.
4. The Head reserves the right to punish a pupil for bad work or misbehaviour at school.
5. The Head reserves the right to compel a pupil to do his/her homework at school in the event of his/her work being unsatisfactory. As an alternative, the Head also reserves the right to implement detention either on weekday afternoons or on Saturday mornings.
6. The Head reserves the right to delegate authority to punish pupils to members of the staff when necessary.
7. Parents are requested not to allow their children to attend public entertainment during weekday nights except under exceptional circumstances.
8. There are certain functions which take place on Saturdays or certain evenings, attendance at which is compulsory. These may include: Founders' Day, Musical/Cultural evenings, Choral Verse, Carol Services, Nativity play, Swimming Galas, Athletics Championships. It is expected that on these occasions, school takes precedence over home activities.
9. School uniform must be worn to all official functions.
10. A term's notice is obligatory if a pupil is leaving the school. A term's fees will be charged if the term's notice is not given.
11. The Head reserves the right to ask a pupil to leave the school with immediate effect if in his opinion it is in the interest of the school as a whole. It must be clearly understood that any decision is at the discretion of the Head and the pupil will not be bound to give a term's notice. The Head's decision is final.
